Notifications by the Chief Commissioner of Mysore.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATIONS.

The 17th April 1880.

No. 21.—It is hereby notified for general information that a large number of mango trees standing on Survey Nos. 6, 7, 10, 53, and 58 of Kasba Agara of the Bangalore Taluk, as also those on Survey Nos. 1, 2, 4, 8, 49, and 56 of the Ibbalur village of the same taluk, will be sold by public auction, on the spot, on the 11th proximo and the two following days, by the Amildar of Bangalore. Each tree, as numbered, will be sold separately. Intending purchasers are at liberty to go to the place and inspect the trees at any time before the day of sale. Purchasers will be required, immediately the sale is concluded, to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money, and to pay up the balance within a fortnight from the day of sale; failing which, the trees will be re-sold at the risk of the defaulting purchaser, the deposit amount being forfeited to Government.

Purchasers will be put in possession of the trees as soon as the sale is confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner, and they will be required to cut down and remove the trees within two months from that date, and, in case of default, the trees will become the property of Government, and will be re-sold.

The 27th April 1880

No. 22.—The following addendum to the Civil Pension Code is re-published for general information and the especial attention of all heads of offices :—

No. 137, C. P. C. Section 76, Page 44.

Insert the following Rule under this Section :—

6. The proviso under Section 70 applies to the invalid pension of an inferior servant. The service of such an officer appointed after the 1st April 1880 and after he attained the age of forty years does not qualify for pension or gratuity of any kind.

No. 23.—Under instructions from the Government of India, Foreign Department, the following Resolution of the Department of Finance and Commerce No. 909, dated 20th February 1880, regarding Government Savings Banks, is re-published for general information, as applicable to Mysore, with the following modifications :—

In Rule III for "Government of India" read "Government of Mysore."

Instead of Rule VIII read "on the written request of any Depositor, the balance or any part of it will be remitted by the Treasury Officer to any person or Company in Mysore, free of charge, by means of a public service transfer receipt."

Department of Finance and Commerce, dated Fort William, the 20th February 1880.

No. 909.—Read again—

Resolution No. 2037, dated 20th December 1879, publishing the Rules for District and Presidency Savings Banks.

Resolution No. 385, dated 24th January 1880, providing that the above Resolution does not apply to Military Savings Banks.

Resolution No. 561, dated 5th February 1880, permitting the Comptroller General to receive and hold in trust Government Paper for any Depositor.

Resolution.—Sundry additions having been made to the Savings Banks Rules published on the 20th December 1879, the Governor General in Council considers it expedient to issue the following revised Rules for District and Presidency Savings Banks, revoking all previous Rules :—

I.—In these Rules—

"Depositor," "Deposit," and "Secretary" bear the meaning which they bear in The Government Savings Bank Act, 1873.

"Account" means the account of a Depositor in a Government Savings Bank.

"Balance" means the balance at credit of an account.

II.—Any person may become a Depositor on his own behalf, or on behalf of any other named person dependent upon him. Deposits may also be made by the managers of benevolent or other public Associations, or by public officers of money deposited with them ex-officio as security for the discharge of any public duty or for the fidelity of any public officer, or for the accomplishment of any public object.

III.—Subject to the provisions of these Rules, the Government of India guarantees the re-payment of every deposit with interest.

IV.—Without the sanction of the Comptroller General, no account will be opened for less than One Rupee ; and no person may deposit more than Five Thousand Rupees, in all, between any 1st of April and the 31st March next following.

131

V.—Interest will not be allowed upon a smaller balance than 1½ Rupee, or upon the excess in any balance over the highest multiple of 1½ Rupee.

VI.—Interest will be allowed for each calendar month upon the minimum balance of the account between the close of the fourth day and the end of the month.

VII.—From the 1st January 1880, till further notice, interest will be allowed upon deposits at the rate of one pie a month for every 1½ Rupee, which is equal to one anna for every Rs. 18 or one Rupee for every Rs. 288 being at the rate of Rs. 4⅙ per centum per annum. Without the sanction of the Comptroller General, no higher monthly interest will be allowed upon any balance than Rs. 17⅓.

VIII.—On the written request of any Depositor, his balance, or any part of it, will be invested by the Comptroller General in his own name in trust for, and at the risk of, the Depositor at current market rates, in stock of any Loan which he may specify; if no particular loan is specified, then stock of one of the Four Per Cent Loans will be bought. And stock or notes of any Government Loan, to a moderate amount, may be received by the Comptroller General from or on behalf of any Depositor and converted into stock. The stock thus bought will be held by the Comptroller General on the Depositor's account, the interest thereon, less a commission of one-quarter per cent., being added to his deposit, on advice from the Comptroller General, and entered in his Deposit Book, the first time that it is subsequently presented. Stock held on account of a Depositor will, on his written request, be sold, and the proceeds added to his Deposit, or, if he desires it, will be converted into notes and delivered to him. A commission of ¼ per cent, besides the Bank's fees, will be charged upon such purchases, sales, and deliveries.

IX.—Every account will be made up on the 31st March, and the interest then due, calculated under these Rules, added to the balance upon which future interest will accrue. If an account is closed on any other date, interest due to the end of the preceding calendar month will be paid to the Depositor: but a Depositor who closes an account should not, ordinarily, be permitted immediately to re-open it, except on payment of a fine varying at the discretion of the Secretary from One to Ten Rupees.

X.—An account may be transferred free of charge to any other Government Savings Bank.

XI.—A Deposit Book will be supplied to each Depositor in which the Secretary, or, if the Savings Bank is at a public treasury, the Treasury Officer, will acknowledge every deposit. The personal attendance of a Depositor is not required; but no deposit will be received or payment made without the Depositor's Deposit Book, and the Government will not be responsible for any deposit the receipt of which is not acknowledged in a Deposit Book. The interest due to date will be entered in each Deposit Book the first time that it is produced after the 31st March. The first Deposit Book will be supplied free of charge; but if a Deposit Book is lost or injured, or if a closed account is re-opened, one rupee will be charged for a new book.

XII.—A Depositor may not operate frequently upon his account as if it were an ordinary banking account, or open more than one account in his own name or in the name of any member of his family or for his own benefit or the benefit of any member of his family. The Comptroller General must take precautions to prevent any transgression of this Rule, and in particular, any employment of an account as an ordinary drawing account. This rule is not meant to prevent any one from opening more than one ex-officio or public account.

XIII. The Secretary may refuse to open any account, or may close any account for any sufficient reason, as for example, because he thinks that the account is likely to be used or is being used contrary to the object with which Government Savings Banks are established, namely, the encouragement of saving. But every such refusal or closure, and the reasons for it, should be reported to the Comptroller General.

XIV.—When the Secretary thinks it proper to close any account, he shall give notice, in writing, to the Depositor, of such closure. After the date of such notice, no deposit shall be accepted on the account so closed, and no interest shall be allowed upon the balance of the closed account after the end of the calendar month then current.

XV.—The Comptroller General should report to the Governor General in Council any refusal to sanction an application under Rule IV or VII with his reasons for such refusal.

XVI.—These Rules apply as well to accounts opened before as after their publication.

XVII.—The Governor General in Council reserves the right to alter or add to these Rules at any time.

123

XVIII.—A copy of the Government Savings Banks Act, 1873, and of these Rules, shall be printed in each Deposit Book, and the signature, or, if he cannot write, mark of the Depositor, obtained to the annexed declaration before any deposit is accepted from him.

Declaration to be recorded in accordance with Rule XVIII.

I acknowledge that I have read these Rules (or, if he cannot read, that these Rules have been read to me).
